THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1864.

MUNICIPAL REFORM.

If there is any one abuse in the River Plate which cries to Heaven for reformation it is the Municipal squandering which is going on in this city. With a rental of close on twenty millions, the effete body seems to consider that it does enough for the city of Buenos Ayres by repairing the pavement of a few streets, maintaining a lot of old 'Charleys' for watchmen, and paying for the gas and oil used to half light the city. Municipal abuses have now been so long on the increase, and complaints so loud that sugest body of city fathers so frequent, that nowadays few men who set any value on their character can be found willing to accept the post of Municipal. To pay for gin gerbread, fireworks, and gimcracks, this board of aldermen has always been found both ready and willing: but to pave a street or improve a parish is a matter which takes time to consider, and influence to pass. So scandalous of late has the conduct of the Municipal Board become, that we find men of tried merit honestly resigning their post in that body, and complaints and receiving petitions exchanged which tend to bring the Corporation of this city every day into greater disrepute. We are willing to admit the extreme liberality of the Board to get up balloon ascensions and fireworks, but to water the city seems to be something like redeeming our paper money—never to be passed.

Having now for many years experienced the utter incompetency of our Municipal Board, and being most thoroughly convinced that there is not the slightest improvement to be expected from this sleepy corporation, we think it high time to ask, When may we expect municipal reform?

The paper currency is now a chronic evil of the country: it inwardly wounds us all poorer, but the depreciation of the paper dollar will not break a man's neck, or necessitate the use of the stomach-pump. Not so the municipal gangrene; it is becoming of such hideous dimensions that if a man escapes getting killed by the expiring effects of a coach or an omnibus, he runs a risk of being poisoned by an incautious use of river water.

Last evening the diligence to Barracas was all but upset on the hill immediately preceding Calle Buen Orden: the holes and ruts on that hill would, if widened a little, be able to carry all the municipal fathers of Buenos Ayres. Will it be credited that whilst this august body has sixty thousand dollars to spend in balloon ascensions, they can only afford to spend two thousand dollars a year in keeping in repair the greatest thoroughfare in the city. When abuses reach such a climax, and the lives of the citizens become hourly endangered by the neglect of one man's use Mr. Bilbao's expression, 'rottenness') of the Municipality of Buenos Ayres, it behoves us all to put the question to President Mitre—What is the Municipality of Buenos Ayres good for?

It is fashionable to talk of the progress of Buenos Ayres, and call it the Athens of South America, but the Attic soil must have been a most monstrously muddy hole if any city in that classic quarter resembled the Buenos Ayres of the present day.

The plazas, the side walks, the crossings even in the very heart of the city, are in such a muddy condition, that verily it baffles all description.

If we had no Municipal Board at all, if every householder was obliged to keep his part of the street cleaned, lighted, and paved, a few of our native families might be poorer, but what an intolerable gain to the public at large!

We repeat that the yearly rental of the Municipal board is some twenty millions. Not one man in a hundred knows how the half of this sum is spent.

Arrogating to themselves the right of using the streets in a cleanly manner all beneaved with mud.

[illegible] the power to [illegible] repairs, [illegible] of the ruts and holes of getting our necks broken. Pleading on their part to attend to the sewage question in a proper place, we are, all who are obliged to drink river water, undergoing a sort of slow poison more fatal than bolladonna. The Municipality of Buenos Ayres has given sufficient proof of its incompetency. We call upon the President of the Nation to reform it, or else abolish it altogether. A more vampirical body never existed in a free country. We all hate mud, filth, dirt, "pantanos," general uncleanliness, and we call upon us abolish the Municipality of Buenos Ayres, and we get rid of all the rest.

SYMPATHY FOR BARRACAS.

IMPORTANT MEETING

In consequence of the scandalous attempt of Admiral Mud, to seize the very valuable Argentine possession, known as Barracas, a rather influential meeting was convened for yesterday evening, at the 'Mud and Puddle' Arms, in Calle Buen Orden. Owing to cards of admission having been previously sent round to all the residents of Barracas and their friends, the attendance was rather good, particularly as a previous intimation of free liquoring was given. Mr. Ballpoint of the General Steamnavigation took the chair, Capt. D. Diligencia acting as secretary. Don H. F. Veredo rose and said—Fellow-suburbians, there has of late been so much talk about sympathy with Peru, that the victimised residents of the suburbs have been induced to call this meeting, in the hopes that as people are in the sympathetic humour, they will possibly, on being stirred up, feel for their fellow-countrymen in Barracas. The dirty ruffian, Admiral Mud, has taken possession of the passes into this city, and now, I regret to say, holds the place. They say, fellow-friends, that the Municipality of Buenos Ayres has sent down a commission to treat on the matter, never having acknowledged the independence of Barracas, but I call upon you, my friends to join with me in throwing mud, dirty, filthy mud in the teeth of these rotten municipals, let these dignitaries take heed of strong, young, athletic Barracas (tremendous cheering and shouts of stick the municipales in the mud,) and the consequence will be a most deafening jingling of glasses, tin pots, &c.

Mr. Thespho next came forward, and with tears in his eyes, and mud on his boots, stated that he had missed the coach, and had been obliged to walk (sensation, for they

ON 'CHANGE.

June 15, 1864.

The brokerage business is specie is so diminishing that the ounce brokers will before long be obliged to embrace some other vocation. Time sales today could not be effected, owing to the shock which the market has received by the failure of Civellari. It is idle to attempt to conceal the uneasy feeling which exists in the market—people who have money are determined to keep a fast hold on it, as unfavorable news is looked for from Europe, and also the disclosures made by the failure referred to, are opening the eyes of all to the danger of trusting to two or even three signatures on a bill.

Patacons opened at 28 70, and closed at the same price. The sales for cash were unusually heavy, 119,345. It is seldom we have noticed such a preponderance of cash over credit sales, and can only be accounted for by the unwillingness of operators to sell on time. Parties requiring specie, within short dates, were obliged to buy for cash. Notwithstanding, however, this extra ordinary increase in cash sales, patacons did not fluctuate a considerably, and all sought it requires about three millions and a quarter of paper money to pay for these sales, still we have not heard of any fresh demand for paper money by any of the banks, proving clearly that people cannot go by figures in the River Plate.

The only time sales to-day were, 3,000 for Saturday at 28 75, and 14,000 for June 30 at the same rates.

Respecting the unfortunate occurrence out of the Civalliere affair, it is right to say that, they are of a most unimportant character, being two confection ers and one tin smith, no almanacers of any standing whatever having been implicated in the matter.

The failure of Messrs. Civalleri, Brothers & Co., of this market, has given rise to a very nice question in mercantile law, respecting what constitutes a delivery of goods in this city. Of course we are told that there is no analogy whatever between Spanish and English law on the subject, but we hold that even according to the "Usos del Comercio" the legal transfer of the right constitutes the legal transfer of the goods. It is said by Spanish merchants that the purchase or sale of an article is not complete unless accompanied by an actual weighing and delivery of the article in question, but we find that of the Codigo de Comrcio says, "that the contract of purchase and sale shall be regarded complete from the time when the buyer and seller have agreed upon the article and price, even though the price has not been paid nor the goods delivered." From this it appears clear that Civellari & Co. were, when they gave their bill for the flour in question, were clearly the owners of the goods in question. If anyone, they certainly had the power to hypothecate the flour. But Article 526 seems to decide the present case in favor of the original proprietors of the flour—it says: "The sale being effected according to Article 5 4, the seller is obliged to deliver to the buyer the article sold on the terms, and in the manner stipulated, under penalty of whatever losses and damages which their failure so to do may cause." Therefore, as there is an obligation to deliver the goods previous to the payment of the price, if between the sale and delivery of such goods the credit and standing of the purchaser has become notoriously altered and sufficient security is not given for the payment of the notes at maturity."

It would seem, therefore, beyond all doubt, that the Flour can be held by the original vendors until security for the payment of the notes is given; and yet again, by Art. 527, it would seem that the legal delivery of goods can be effected by the transfer of the bill of lading, storekeepers' receipt, or other commercial paper used to show title to goods not in actual possession. Clearly then, the Bank having transferred the flour in question in their own to the books of the Custom House, the delivery of the flour is complete, and the sole title to the goods vested in the Bank. If such be the case, then the original owners of the flour must come in as simple creditors. Art. 1600 gives the seller the right of recovery of certain cases; but Art. 1671 is very explicit, and says—" The seller's right of recovery of goods in cases where the seller has received the buyer's notes in payment for the full amount, simply giving a receipt, and not making an agreement without any particular mention being made of the notes." If, however, the bills were only given in part payment, the seller can follow the goods. Art. 1675 seems to decide the present question in favor of the bank provided, as the buyer of the flour. We have thought proper to call special attention to this case: to our view the bank's title is indefensible, but the majority of the merchants, both native and foreign, are confident that the original seller can follow the flour unless the bills are secured or paid.

Since writing the foregoing, we have been informed that the sellers of the flour received no pagarés whatever from Civallari, and that the flour, so far from being delivered, was being arranged by the sellers, filling and mending barrels, &c., when the failure occurred. Under such circumstances it appears there can be no doubt what fever in the matter as to the right of the sellers to recover their goods, as the point has already been decided in the case of Llavollol versus Carneiro.

We understand that a similar question arises on some fifty bags of coffee, bought in deposit by the bankrupts, and transferred the same day.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo.
BUENOS-AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great commercial cities of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Acco'unts who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.
The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artizans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.
The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and most liberal principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and the neighborhood.
Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.
p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM EASLIE.

CONDITIONS.
1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.
2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months.
3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.
5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising its loss in the public newspapers.
